

BATTLE
of
BOSWORTH

MCLAREN VALE

Joch Bosworth of Battle of Bosworth Wines at McLaren Vale's 2009 Sea and Vines Festival, Sunday June 7th, for One Day Only....

Meet maverick winemaker and self-styled 'grape farmer' Joch Bosworth and taste a range of his Battle of Bosworth wines including the new vintage release of his Amarone-inspired 'White Boar' Shiraz over a fabulous seafood lunch.

Joch will be available for intensive questioning about his organic rationale, winemaking beliefs and his love of fishing. Does Joch really do his best strategic thinking aboard the Bismarck III somewhere in the Gulf St Vincent with a six pack of Coopers? Find out the answer to this and more by coming along to the Producers of McLaren Vale on Sunday June the 7th 2009...

So, for one day only, join Battle of Bosworth Wines and The Producers for a long table lunch of local seafood and single vineyard, organically grown wines. Taste the menu by local chefs Nigel Rich of d'Arry's Verandah Restaurant and Dustin Rodgers of Think Food Catering with the Battle of Bosworth wines.

DETAILS

Seafood Dish: Flat Head Saltimbocca on Green Rice and Baby Squid stuffed with Willunga Almonds, Spinach and Buffalo Mozzarella.

Dessert: Producers' Verjuice Custard with Pickled Quince in Shiraz Syrup

Date and Time: Sunday June 7th, 12noon - 3.30pm

Location: Producers of McLaren Vale, Branson Road, McLaren Vale

Price: $90

Tickets: Enquiries and Bookings

Tori Phone: 08 8323 0060
Mobile: 0434 008 046
Email: tori@producers.net.au

Organically Grown, Traditionally Vinified